

K-Love is a vital radio station for our children. It is the only place I feel 100% guaranteed that what they hear will be non-offensive. I don't know if the station would continue if the proposed changes were to take effect. I think this radio station and its programming is critical to the generation behind us. It still appreciates and values family interest over making money.